EXPLANATORY NOTES

This second volume of Vital Records of Charlestown, Massachusetts, includes over 17,650 entries covering births, marriages, and deaths roughly 1800 through 1849. Some events for the 1700s and 1800s will be found in this volume, as will "out of town marriages" prior to 1800, and some burials for 1848-1849 recorded by the City of Charlestown. Essentially, this volume picks up where Thomas Bellows Wyman's Genealogies and Estates of Charlestown left off. And, compared to the earlier records, the information in this volume provides considerably more detail with regard to occupations, causes of death, and residences of persons from other communities, as reflected in the subject index.

All of the record volumes from which the material in this book was taken are kept by the Boston City Registrar in the Archives Room at City Hall, with the exception of some original marriage intentions and returns for the 1840s found in the manuscript collection of the Society. All the material is from civil records, although there are entries in the town books which refer to baptisms or family Bibles.

Aside from the marriage intentions and returns mentioned above, no other original returns of births, marriages, and deaths through 1849 have been located for Charlestown. Original returns--from 1788 for marriages, 1817 for deaths, and 1833 for births--were evidently with the Boston City Registrar in 1889,* but these have since been lost or destroyed.

As for Volume I of Charlestown vital records, the entries in this book for the period prior to 1843 were taken from a nineteenth-century transcript and then compared with the original records. This and the 1843-1849 material were thoroughly proofread and care taken to indicate interpretive readings (for information about the editorial process, please refer to pages ix-xiv of Volume I and pages xiv-xvi of this volume).

In 1843 the Commonwealth of Massachusetts first provided printed forms to the cities and towns for the recording of vital records. At the end of the registration period--originally 1 May through 30 April, then 1 May through 31 December, and finally 1 January through 31 December--the city and town clerks were to make a copy of their records and send them to Boston.* These state copies through 1900 are now at the Massachusetts State Archives at Columbia Point, Boston, and on microfilm at the Society. As they are copies, they have not been compared for this book except where the original Charlestown volumes have illegible or questionable entries, and in those cases the missing information supplied from the state copy is identified Mass VRs, with the appropriate volume and page number.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

In one way or another, all the persons acknowledged in Volume I contributed to the production of this book; however, particular mention of the following is again needed:

To William H. Schoeffler, Esq., who focused his sharp eyes as proofreader;

To Edward W. Hanson, Donald M. Nielsen, Jane Fletcher Fiske, F.A.S.G., and Gary Boyd Roberts for their help and for keeping the project coordinated and moving along, and for kindly extending the "deadline," as was done for Henry H. Edes over a hundred years earlier.

To Judith A. McCarthy, Boston City Registrar, and her staff, for their continued help and support in accessing the old Charlestown records.

I also thank J. Worth Estes, M.D., Professor of Pharmacology, Boston University School of Medicine, for his assistance with identifying and indexing causes of death.

And last but far from least, all of us interested in Charlestown are grateful to John Brooks Threlfall, whose generosity helps make possible books such as this one.

PREFACE

With this second volume of Charlestown Vital Records the original town and city entries are brought into print to the year 1850, the traditional ending date for the publishing of Massachusetts vital records.

Charlestown existed as a separate Massachusetts city for only another quarter century, becoming part of Boston in 1873. Someday, perhaps a third volume can be produced which will complete the publication of Charlestown Vital Records.

In the meantime, the availability of the two volumes of vital records should assist students of Charlestown history and genealogy, reducing the wear and tear on the disintegrating old volumes. Those wishing to check the original books will, it is hoped, find the published records accurate.

Roger D. Joslyn, F.A.S.G.

Charlestown Town Vital Records
Volume 2

Charlestown vital records were presented in a different format in the town's Volume 2, which covered the period from the 1780s to the early 1840s. Instead of the more or less chronological sequence of entries seen in the "Ancient Volume" 1, the town clerks arranged births and deaths by initial letter of surname. Pages were assigned in advance for each initial letter and entries were made chronologically as the information arrived (the births of two or more children of a couple might be entered at one time). In some cases not enough space was allowed, so entries for some letters were continued on a later or earlier page. Several times an entry was made on the wrong page and was either crossed out and reentered on the correct page or left as is and a cross-reference made by the clerk (for example, "See on M."). Marriages were recorded as returns came in from ministers and justices of the peace. These returns might cover single events or a month's or season's listing of marriages performed.

The half-century or so after the American Revolution was a period when recording of vital records in New England slacked off considerably, particularly with respect to births and deaths. Thanks to the wisdom of David Dodge, Town Clerk from 1825 to 1847, Charlestown's records are much "more complete" than those for other places. From the town residents he sought, either in person or by letter, copies of their "family records" which he then copied into Volume 2, as is quite evident from the grouping of family births, often including the birth dates of father and mother, sometimes with the parents' date of marriage as well. If any births and marriages of a family then resident took place outside Charlestown, those places were usually noted and thus the movements of a family can be learned. Some entries within a family group out of chronological sequence are editorially marked [sic?], as it has not been determined if the clerk wrote them out of order or entered the wrong year. Additionally, it is clear some births were entered after the death of a parent, such as those for the Cole family on page 60 of this book.

The pages of Volume 2 - Part I were silked by the Emery Process, as those for the "Ancient Volume 1" had been. Because the records of Volume 2 are not as old as those in the "Ancient Volume," fewer entries presented reading problems, aside from handwriting that was difficult and sometimes inconsistent. Nevertheless, some names or dates, apparently clear when transcribed in the 1870s, cannot now be read, and in those cases information from the transcript is placed between angle brackets, < >. Curiously, two entries are found in the transcription volume which are not found in the original--records obviously entered after 1873 by Boston City clerks. These two entries appear in this book and are properly identified. Still other entries were made after Charlestown became a part of the City of Boston, as evident from their post-1873 recording dates.

The section designated in these pages as Charlestown Volume 2 - Part II is from a rebound book containing pages from three separate early books. In 1840 the Commonwealth of Massachusetts passed a law requiring town and city clerks to submit annual returns of births, marriages, and deaths for a centralized, state-wide collection of vital records in Boston, commencing in 1841. To coincide with the new law, Charlestown began a new set of vital record volumes in 1841, designated volumes 3, 4, and 5. Here were entered the births, marriages, and deaths respectively for the early 1840s, until the Commonwealth provided printed forms in 1843.* Entries made in volumes 3 and 5 for births and deaths were on pages assigned by the first letter of a surname, and marriages in Volume 4 were entered in groups as returned by officiants. In many cases the births of two or more children of a couple were recorded at the same time. In addition, several pre-1841 and some eighteenth-century events were entered into these volumes.

In Volume 4 were also entered the "out of town" marriages. As directed by a Massachusetts law of 1857, town and city clerks were to copy those records of marriages prior to 1800 in which either party was then resident in another Massachusetts town and send a copy of the applicable records to the clerks of the towns of the parties' "out of town" residence. The clerks receiving these records were to enter them "into a book to be kept for that purpose." The intent of this law is unknown.

Town volumes 3, 4, and 5 were broken up, the few used pages being removed and bound together into a separate volume and new pagination made, continuing after the last numbered page of volume 2. Volumes 2, 3, 4, and 5 are now Charlestown Archives Volume 2, Parts I and II. All pages either blank or on which were entered no vital records were evidently removed before rebinding into the two parts. For this book the new pagination of Part II is given in brackets, [ ], followed by the original page numbers from volumes 3, 4, and 5 in parenthesis, ( ).

In original town Volume 2 - Part I were recorded over nine thousand births, marriages, and deaths onto 367 pages. Some eleven hundred additional events were recorded onto 126 pages in Part II.

Late in 1872, being "fully alive to their dangerous condition, to say nothing of the unspeakable inconvenience experienced by inquirers in endeavoring to find the information sought," Henry H. Edes brought the matter of Charlestown Volume 2 of vital records to the attention of the City. Consequently, the City Council authorized the volume to be copied "by some suitable person," the expense "not exceeding the sum of Two hundred dollars." On 30 December 1872 Edes was contracted to "copy or cause to be copied...upon Whatman's linen paper and bound in the best manner in full russia leather...all the entries contained in the original Second, Third, Fourth, and Fifth volumes...." The births and deaths were to be arranged alphabetically and an index made of the names of brides and grooms in the marriage records. The project was to be completed by 1 January 1874, but when by 1 October 1873 he realized "the labor involved in carrying out the foregoing Contract is greater than at first supposed," Edes was granted an extension to 1 July 1874. The transcription was made by Miss S. B. Kidder and supervised by Edes, who noted at the time the original Volume 2 was a "dilapidated volume" of poor paper, the entries having no chronology, and that many of the dates were "wholly obliterated, or worn off, by constant use." To arrange the births and deaths together "under their proper alphabetical head" took "a vast amount of labor." As in the transcript of the "Ancient Volume" 1, cross-references to the page numbers of town Volume 2 on which the original entries could be found were noted in Edes's transcription.

Also in this transcription volume--distinguished as Charlestown Archives Volume 4--were included records of death from the United States Marine Hospital in Charlestown and from a diary kept by Commissary Richard Deven.* Deven's original diary is at the Massachusetts

To wit:

"This certifies, That, by the records of Marriages in the Town of Charlestown, in the County of Middlesex, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, New England, "Seth Sawyer and Susanna Frost, both of Charlestown, were joined in Marriage by the Revd. Henry Jackson, Sep. 11th 1825."

"Certified under my Official Signature and attestation, at Charlestown aforesaid, the twenty eighth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and forty five"

(Signed) "David Dodge, Town Clerk of said Charlestown"

"I, Henry Mirick, of Charlestown above-mentioned, being under Oath, depose, testify and say, that I am a native Citizen of said Charlestown, and have resided here from my infancy. I am sixty years of age and my occupation is that of a Trader. I am well acquainted with the wife of Mr Seth Sawyer of Charlestown whose marriage is referred to in the above Certificate of our Town Clerk--Mrs Sawyer's maiden name was Susanna Paine Frost, and she is the legitimate daughter of William Frost late of said Charlestown, Morocco Dresser, now deceased. I knew said William, deceased, [blank] years ago when he came from England, and continued my acquaintance with him until his death."

(Signed) "Henry Mirick."

"Middlesex, SS: Charlestown, June, 30. 1845. Then personally appeared the aforesaid Henry Mirick, and made solemn Oath to the Truth of the above Deposition by him subscribed,"

Before me," (Signed) "Paul Willard, Jus: Pacis."

Recorded and examined (June, 30. 1845.)

Attest. David Dodge, Town Clerk

[p. 424] (p. 16)

The following is a record of the marriages of residents of Charlestown, solemnized in other Towns of the Commonwealth, prior to the year 1800.--made in conformity to Sec. 4. Chapt. 84. of the Acts of 1857. and in chronological order.

Attest. Charles Poole, City Clerk.

Finding that Mr. Poole had omitted to note the name of the town from which each of the following marriages was returned to him in 1857, I have carefully compared the following record with the original returns, and added the words "at Boston,"--"at Marlboro,"--"at Braintree," &c., according as the marriage was returned by the town (or city) clerk of Boston, Marlboro, Salem, &c.

Charlestown Births 1843-1849

During the period 1843 through 1849 there were 3365 entries for births recorded in Charlestown. These birth records are now in Charlestown Archives volumes 5 and 6. Volume 5 ends with births for part of 1849; the remaining 1849 births and some late recordings of 1809-1849 births are found in Volume 6. Some births occurring in 1843 and later are also found in Part II of town Volume 2.

The first state-supplied forms for recording births had the following headings:

> No./When Registered./Name, (if any.)/Sex./ Date of Birth./Place of Birth./Name and Surname of Parents./Occupation of Father./ Residence of Parents./Informant.

A second form, introduced in 1848, did not have columns for Place of Birth or Informant. Town clerks had previously entered the name of a street in the Place of Birth column but now wrote this information in the column for Residence of Parents.

In 1849 a third form was introduced which restored the columns for the child's Place of Birth and the Informant and also added columns for the Place of Birth of Father and Place of Birth of Mother.

The order of information shown in this book is the following:

> Name, sex, date of birth, place of birth, father's name and occupation, mother's name, residence of parents.

Names of the informants and dates of registration are shown at the top of pages or within a page where there is a change. Shortened names for the informants are Schools for Trustees of the Schools and Almshouse for James R. Turner, Keeper of Almshouse. Most birth entries in this period were provided by the Trustees of the Schools. In a few cases, the name of an informant and date of registration is included within an entry. If information was not written in any column that fact is not noted in this book; the use of "not returned" has been transcribed, however, when needed for clarity. Illegible records have been checked against the State copies from which any additional information is designated Mass VRs (see page x).

Where the year of a birth was not entered it has been supplied in brackets, [ ], based on the date of the return. It is possible some supplied dates are incorrect; the lack of chronology for most of the entries makes assumptions about dates difficult.

On the first twelve pages of Volume 6, the town clerk wrote the year of birth--1849--only in the first entry, using ditto marks for the rest of the page. He also originally wrote in places of birth which only occurred outside Charlestown; later, he went back and added in "Charlestown" where necessary, with ditto marks for the rest of the page.
